Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 20 June regarding the complaint from Peter Jones.

Notwithstanding previous correspondence, I am keen to bring this matter to an amicable resolution if at all possible.

Therefore, subject to the Editor's approval, I would be prepared to suggest the following clarification:

In common with other newspapers, an article on 6 April said that millions of tons of household recycling is being 'dumped abroad'. We are happy to clarify that, while 12m tons of 'green list' waste is shipped overseas, the exact proportion which ends up in landfill is unknown.

I would be grateful for your confirmation that this is acceptable so that I can seek the necessary approval.

In the meantime, do call if you require any further information from me or would like to discuss.

Kind regards

Group Managing Editor
